Acceptance for registration and notification of loss of rights

Following further examination, your application to register the abovementioned Community design has been accepted.

It will be published in the Community Designs Bulletin within three working days. You can consult the bulletin on the Office website at https://euipo.europa.eu .

The filing date of the Community design application is 21/03/2024. This is the date on which the deficiencies regarding the grant of a filing date were remedied.

Pursuant to Article 40 CDIR, if you consider this finding inaccurate, you may apply in writing for a decision on the matter within two months of receipt of this communication. Such a decision will be given only if the Office does not share your opinion. Otherwise the finding will be amended and you will be informed.

The applicant's details and the identification of the Community design registration, as entered by the Office, are attached.

All contact or correspondence with the EUIPO in relation to the Community design registration should include the above registration number.

Registration certificate

The registration certificate will only be stored as an online document. It will be available for you to download and print from the day after publication. A paper copy of the certificate will not be issued. However, you may request certified or uncertified copies of the registration certificate.

To download the registration certificate in PDF format, go to eSearch plus: https://euipo.europa.eu/eSearch/ . From there, search for the registration number mentioned

The certificate contains the information from the Community Designs Register at the date of registration (see code 15 on the certificate). If you have filed a request for modification of data on or after that date, no new certificate will be issued. You will be notified separately of the change, after which you will be able to request an extract from our database to reflect the design’s administrative status.

For an explanation of the codes on the certificate, please consult the Vademecum on the EUIPO website: https://euipo.europa.eu/eSearch/#advanced/bulletins .

If for any reason you do not agree with the content of this certificate, please send a letter to the EUIPO indicating your objections.

If you need additional explanation on any aspect of this communication, please contact the EUIPO’s Information Centre on +34 965139100 making reference to your application number. The Information Centre will provide an answer to your question, or will put you through to the examiner in charge of the file. If the examiner is not available, you may request a ‘call back’ and the examiner will contact you within two working days.

Annex 2 – WIPO Digital Access Service

The WIPO Digital Access Service (DAS) helps you meet the Paris Convention 's requirements for providing participating offices with priority and similar documents without having to obtain and send multiple certified paper copies of an application. Instead, simply ask the office where you are claiming priority (the office of second filing) to directly download a copy of the document from DAS.

For more information, please refer to: https://www.wipo.int/das .

The following DAS code should be used when you claim priority for subsequent filings at other participating intellectual property offices :

015054056-0001: 09E9

IMPORTANT WARNING

Misleading requests for payment for trade mark and design services such as publication, registration or entry in business directories

Users in Europe are receiving an increasing amount of unsolicited mail from companies requesting payment for trade mark and design services such as publication, registration or entry in business directories.

Please note that these services are not connected with any official trade mark or design registration services provided by public bodies within the European Union such as the EUIPO.

If you receive a letter or invoice, please check carefully what is being offered to you, and its source. Please note that the EUIPO never sends to its users invoices or letters requesting direct payment for services.

If you have any doubts or detect any new cases, please check with your legal advisers or contact us on +34 965139100 or by email at: CustomerCare@euipo.europa.eu .

To see some sample letters from firms or registers that have nothing to do with the EUIPO's registers or official publications, please visit the following web page:
